Election Procedures At Garnet Precinct Protested to Board

RIVERSIDE — A grand jury investigation of election board proceedings in Garnet Precinct No. 1 was ordered by the board of supervisors Monday.

Al Scharf, president of the North Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, who instigated the board action, declared that

LAWRENCE MODESTO

Murder Suspect Is Arraigned

Lawrence Glenn Modesto, the 31-year-old Indian farm laborer, was arraigned in Indio Municipal court yesterday for the murder of two Thermal schoolgirls Mary and Connie Mack.

Modesto failed to enter a plea because he did not have legal representation. Judge Wally Rouse appointed Public Defender George Hooten to represent him and set the preliminary hearing on the two murder charges for Friday at 10 a.m.

Modesto is being held in County jail without bail.

Charged

He is charged with the beating to death of 9-year-old Mary Mack in the bedroom of her Thermal home with a three-pound blacksmiths hammer, and then turning on her sister, Connie Mack, 14, beating her on the head with the same hammer, then tossing her body into the Whitewater storm drain, where she drowned.

Sheriff Joe Rice reported that Modesto, who was released just over one year ago from Chino Prison for men were he served five years of a five to life murder verdict, has confessed to the slayings.

Old Hand

The 31-year-old Indian member of the Torres-Martinez tribe is well known to law enforcement authorities in Riverside County. According to police his long record of previous crimes goes back to August 1949, when he was arrested by sheriff's deputies for drunk and fined $15 and placed on one year probation.

He was arrested a year later for burglary charges in Indio, and was given 60 days to make restitution of $8 and $5 in damages. At this time he was freed after spending 60 days in jail for stealing an automobile and riding around in it until captured.

He was arrested in August, 1951 in Banning for grand theft auto; in February of 1952 he served 9 months in the county jail on burglary charges.

Major Crimes

In September 1953 he was fined $150 in Indio for violation of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act (liquor to minors).

Then the major crimes were recorded, starting in January, 1954 when he received one year in jail and three years probation for burglary in San Diego.

Modesto spent five years in the Chino institution after he was convicted on a second degree murder charge in San Diego in February 1955, and, at the same time, he served a sentence for second degree burglary in the same city. He was released from prison in May, 1960.

"the investigation will also involve action of a certain party in Garnet Precinct No. 2 on the recent water election date relative to registration of voters."

The precinct under protest covers the area from Desert Hot Springs south about to Highway 60-70-99, including all of the North Palm Springs area. It has about 200 registered voters.

"There is a deplorable situation in the North Palm Springs area," declared Scharf. "We have a polling place which has broken various rules and laws. In Garnet No. 1 voters have been ejected at the polls."

Conspiracy Charged

"There has been conspiracy, illegal voting, and closing of polls and turning away voters before the hour of 7 p.m."

Scharf said many complaints have been made to County Clerk Gordon Pequegnat, but Pequegnat has said he didn't have sufficient evidence to act.

"He has ignored all requests to have something done about this polling place," said Scharf, "but has said he would welcome a grand jury investigation."

Berkey Urges Probe

"This isn't something new," said Supervisor George Berkey. "It has cropped up for as long as I can remember since I came on the board of supervisors. I'm not sure what it's all about, but it should be cleared up and settled once and for all by a grand jury investigation."

County Counsel Ray Sullivan noted that the supervisors had nothing concrete to put before the grand jury, but Scharf said the records of the sheriff in Indio will give evidence of locked doors and eviction of people at the polls.

Expressway Bid Called by State

Bids have been called by the State Division of Highways for the construction of .3 of a mile of four-lane expressway to tie in the present four-lane stretch of Highway 111 with the city widening of Palm Canyon Drive. The project extends from San Rafael Road to point .6 of a mile north of Chino Creek.

Bids will be opened Dec. 7 in Los Angeles for the construction work for which the state has budgeted $210,000.

Some work has already been done on the project which involves a large dirt-moving job. Excess dirt from city work on North Palm Canyon Drive, now nearing completion, has been moved to the site of the new state construction.

Included in the state work will be a realignment of the inbound lanes to eliminate a sharp curve at the end of the existing four-lane portion which stops just short of the four-lane divided highway shortly after the bids are opened and the contract awarded.

WEATHER

Desert Area forecast: Variable cloudiness with scattered showers today through Wednesday. Local gusty winds. Little temperature change. High today near 70.

Yesterday's high in Palm Springs was 71, low, 60, and humidity, 13 per cent.

NORTHEND DUST PROBLEM SWEEPS TO COUNCIL MEET

The northend dust problem was swept before the city council Monday night, as four speakers asked for city action to abate blow sand from three cleared areas in Palm Springs.

The council ordered punitive action against the E. L. Yeager Construction Co. and the Towne Development Co., but the action will probably be delayed pending return here of City Attorney Jerry Bunker. The Towne Development Co. reportedly has not controlled dust from 13 cleared acres on La Verne Way in the south end of town.

John Mitchell, operator of the Bali Hai barbecue in the 2700 block of North Palm Canyon

Drive, told the council that for nine weeks an area cleared by the E. L. Yeager Construction Co. had resulted in clouds of sand in the area. Mitchell said that an individual would be prevented from similar action, or "arrested and hauled to jail." He asked for enforcement of a reported city ordinance against dust nuisance from cleared land, emphasizing that "If I put up a sign on top of my restaurant, there would be quick action."

Harold Stone, acting public works director, and City Manager Dan Wagner told the council that the Yeager firm had watered the area where equipment is parked "about 20 times a day."

City Manager Dan Wagner reported today that contact will be made with the firms, but no punitive action can be taken until Jerry Bunker, city attorney, returns from taking a Marine physical. Bunker left the meeting last night at approximately 10 p.m. is expected back here in midweek.

Protest on Traffic to Planners

Hotel Owners Hot Over One-Way Flow Proposal

A protest against the proposed one-way traffic flow for Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue fizzled last night when the city council referred the plan to the city planning commission for study, public hearings and recommendations.

Before the councilmanic action, Sig Ehrens, owner of the Crest View Hotel and immediate past president of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association, told the council that "we hotel people here are apposed" to the proposition. Ehrens added that "it might save a lot of time if you heard our expressions now."

Councilman and vice mayor Kenneth Kirk replied that "there are many angles to this problem," and supported referring the matter to the planning commission. Councilman Ted McKinney added the procedure would be normal, because the planners are supposed to study street routings and locations.

Vera Lamprecht, Indianola Lodge, read the council a prepared statement which charged that one-way proposal would make Indian Avenue "an exit route" only. She concluded that the system would lead to "economic chaos."

The planning commission will announce public hearings on the proposals after formal receipt of the request. A city hall spokesman said today "the matter will probably take some time."

The executive board of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association met this morning, but President Sherman Dickinson said the one-way proposal "was far down on the agenda." A statement on the issue will appear in the association's bulletin within "a week or two," Dickinson said.

Hattie Rips B. Honduras

MIAMI, Fla. (UPI) — Hurricane Hattie ripped into British Honduras with 200-mile an hour winds and 15-foot tides today, cutting off the Central American country from the outside world.

The Miami Weather Bureau said the center of the vicious storm passed over the coast a short distance south of the capital city of Belize about 4:30 a.m. PST.

Weather forecaster Gilbert Clark said the hurricane "went into the right area to inundate most of Belize," built on a flat low-lying swampy area.

"If the people there did not take to the hills it could be a disaster, but they had plenty of warning," Clark said.

"The extent of the damage and the number of casualties will not be known for some time since communications to British Honduras have been disrupted," the Weather Bureau said.

Tear Gas Routes E. German Police

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin police twice routed Communist police with tear gas attacks in border fights during the night, West Berlin authorities reported today.

Police headquarters said the Communist police fled in disorder from two points on the border when Western police used tear gas grenades to defend themselves.

Western police said that at one stage of the battle, the Communists brought their machine pistols into firing position but were ordered to stop.

Early this morning, the Communists stoned Western police on duty on Bernauerstrasse on the French-Soviet sector border. The Western police threw four tear gas grenades over the wall separating the Eastern sector of Berlin from the West and the Communists fled.

Monday night, Communist police threw 10 tear gas grenades over the wall dividing the railway tunnel and routed the Communist police, according to West Berlin police.

Three East Germans escaped to West Berlin during the night, including a 20-year-old Communist policeman who fled through a barbed wire barrier to the French sector in full uniform.

West Berlin police reported that the tense Friedrichstrasse border crossing—focal point of the Berlin cold war—was "very quiet" today. But U.S. and Soviet tanks remained quartered blocks away from each other.

Palm Desert's Hotel Group in County Protest

PALM DESERT — The Palm Desert Hotel and Apartment Association is preparing to write a letter to the county board of supervisors protesting reported shipment of mixed cement from a Massey Construction Co. batch plant on the junior college site here to off-site jobs, Jack Paine, association president, said today.

Paine emphasized that he had no knowledge that the alleged incidents occurred, terming it "hearsay." A Massey dispatcher in Indio told The Desert Sun today that "we don't do that." He added "cement for this area is mixed and dispatched from here."

The hotel group's letter will also ask for some form of blow sand control from the cleared college construction site.

"Perhaps they could water or plant the area not actually under construction to retard the dust problem," Paine said.

A reported petition seeking dust control did not originate with the hotelmen, Paine said.

SPOOKS WON'T PROWL ALONE

Augmented Patrols Set for Halloween

Witches and pumpkins, ghosts and goblins will roam the streets of the desert area tonight, and the words of "trick or treat" will be repeated thousands of times by youngsters dressed in hundreds of different Halloween costumes.

And in among the merry makers will be scores of UNICEF workers who will carry small milk cartons for pennies and nickels to be used for milk for children in foreign countries.

Where Palm Springs normally has a total of six to eight patrolmen in the field on weeknights, Chief of Police August G. Kettmann has ordered a complement of a total of 20 officers on duty tonight.

He has set up his force to cover youth clubs, the entire town, on foot, in patrol cars and on motorcycles.

The force will be comprised of six patrolmen, two detectives, four traffic officers, two juveniles, three clerks, a sergeant in the field and a lieutenant as watch commander. The regular force will be augmented by police reserve.

Nikita Laughs as Western World Condemns Action

By EUGENE MCLOUGHLIN

United Press International

Angry demonstrations against the Soviet Union's monster nuclear bomb erupted today in Italy, Britain and Japan.

Even as Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev laughingly told a Communist party audience in Moscow that Monday's blast was larger than expected because of a scientific "mistake," much of the Western world bitterly condemned the action as a menace to mankind.

Police battled about 1,000 students demonstrating near the Soviet Embassy in the heart of Rome. Other demonstrations were reported from other cities in Italy.

Reports said many students and policemen were injured in the Rome clashes that tied up traffic in the embassy area for more than two hours.

The students shouted "Death to Khrushchev," "Down with Italian Communists" and waved anti-Russian placards as they attempted to break through a strong police cordon around the Soviet Embassy.

Leftist Students Protest
In Tokyo, about 200 leftist Zengakuren students demonstrated in front of the Soviet Embassy. They carried placards and shouted slogans against the Russian super-bomb test.

Zengakuren leaders tried to submit a protest note to embassy officials, but were refused permission to enter the compound. Police said the embassy completely ignored the demonstrating group. The students snake-danced and shouted for about 30 minutes and then left.

It was the first time the Zengakuren student federation had demonstrated against the Soviet Union since Russia resumed its nuclear tests in September. In fact, the Zengakuren group is so far to the left that some of its leaders have been purged from the Japanese Communist party.

In London, a group of anti-bomb demonstrators showed up outside the Soviet Embassy and were told by an embassy spokesman that Monday's blast "probably" concluded the current Soviet nuclear test series.

However, London's Kew Observatory reported it had picked up shock waves this morning "very similar" to those caused by recent Soviet nuclear tests in the Arctic.

MOSCOW (UPI)—The 22nd Soviet Communist Congress ended today by electing Premier Nikita Khrushchev as first secretary of the party's all-powerful Central Committee and by endorsing his new party program designed to give Russia the world's highest living standard within 20 years.

HELSINKI, Finland (UPI) — The cabinets of the Scandinavian countries were summoned to meet in their respective capitals today to consider a startling Soviet request for Finland to join in talks on joint defense measures "against a possible attack by West Germany and her allies."

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Cancer-stricken House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 79, went home to Bonham, Tex., today to die among his friends and neighbors.

He left Baylor University Medical Center, which he entered Oct. 2, in an ambulance on the 90-mile trip to Bonham. Bonham is 90 miles northeast of Dallas.

Phone Probe Asked Here

The city council last night asked that business groups, possibly including the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce Hotel and Apartment Association, investigate a recommendation by I. S. Eisen that the council ask for review of phone and directory rates here.

Eisen wrote the council asking that the city request inclusion in a review of rates and directory advertising charges that has been initiated by the new majority of the State Public Utilities Commission. Cities to be studied, Eisen said, include Pasadena and four others in the Los Angeles area.

'Save Money'
Eisen told the council that "what I'm asking will save money for everybody," and later estimated that the PUC action could lead to "savings of hundreds of thousands of dollars" in Palm Springs. He emphasized that the matter was a PUC initiative, and Palm Springs would not be included in the review unless the city makes a request.

In presenting his request, Eisen asked investigation of the contract made by "Mr. Loveland, president of the Thornhill Publishing Co., who also is president of the California Water and Telephone Co. with himself" for the directory publication. The rates were up approximately 60 per cent, Eisen said.

PUC Initiated
Eisen told the council that the PUC, with a new three-member majority, had initiated the rates review, including the directory, after the phone company report showed a 40 per cent profit increase in one year, with profits totaling more than 10 per cent.

Ralph Duto, local manager for California Water and Telephone Co., told the council his firm's rate schedules were all under PUC control, and readily available. "We have nothing to hide," he said.

Councilman Ted McKinney suggested that the city administration write to other cities cited by Eisen to determine rates and conditions of their service.

Validity Questioned
Councilman Harry Paisley told the meeting that the phone company rates had been approved by both the city and the PUC after hearings last year, and questioned the validity of the city's position in seeking inclusion in the review.

The council opened the meeting with presentation of a commendation to Mrs. Ruth Marx, chairman of the United Nations Day activities here. Presentation was made by City Manager Dan Wagner.

Woman Hit with Citizen Arrest

A Palm Springs woman who gave police no home address, was the subject of a citizens arrest last night by the assistant manager of a local hotel.

Jeanne Ellen Loftus, 26, was taken into custody by police after she was arrested by Richard Hill, assistant manager of Ocotillo Lodge. She had run up a hotel bill of more than $200 and said she did not have the money to pay it.

Brush Fire Blackening Watershed

SIERRA MADRE, Calif. (UPI)—A dozen water bombers joined ground forces today converging on a brush fire that had carved a 1,000-acre black scar across valuable mountain watershed.

The blaze was listed as 50 per cent contained at dawn as a result of dying winds and an all-night attack by fire crews.

Some homes still were in "technical danger" from the flames that drove 750 persons out of the area shortly after the fire started Monday. A three-year drought made much of Southern California like a tinder box. Intermittent gusty winds added to the danger.

A cloud cover moved inland during the night and at daylight snow fell lightly on ridges high above the fire lines in the San Gabriel Mountains.

Climbing humidity and decreasing winds were favorable assists to the 800 men on the firelines.

GOV. BROWN IN RIVERSIDE RENEWS BUDGET PROMISE

RIVERSIDE (UPI)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown today renewed his promise of another balanced budget with no new taxes next year.

Brown, speaking at a Riverside County Democratic luncheon, said his administration "inherited a budget heading straight for a $68 million deficit, the inevitable result of shiftless fiscal policies" when he became governor in 1959.

But, he said, "We will soon present to the legislature our fourth successive balanced budget, and we will do so without new taxes."

Nixon Calls for More Tests in Atmosphere

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI)—Richard M. Nixon, unsuccessful 1960 Republican presidential candidate, has called on the Kennedy administration to resume nuclear testing in the atmosphere to preserve America's security.

Nixon, making his last major speech in the East until after California's gubernatorial elections next year, told a Republican fundraising dinner Monday night the country could no longer be guided by "the neutrals."

The former vice president said he agreed with New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller that nuclear tests were necessary for the world's future. The above-ground explosions should be started immediately, he said.

"I agree with Governor Rockefeller that nuclear tests should be resumed in the atmosphere to preserve the security of America," he told more than 81,000 central New Yorkers who jammed War Memorial Auditorium. "We should not wait and take a Gallup poll of all the neutrals around the world."

Picket Line in Palm Springs

After so many months of not having pickets in Palm Springs, a new picket line was thrown up today on the Capri Hotel on North Indian Avenue by the Carpenters Local 1046.

The picket line was put up on the contractor, Glenn Riley, and not on the hotel. The hotel is currently building a second story on its building.

No 'Hot Stamp' Money Rests in City Budget

Not all bargains turn out that way, Alexander Balogh, operator of the Alexander Stamp and Coin Shop discovered.

Balogh submitted a letter to the city council last night, asking reimbursement for $325 that he had paid for a stamp collection that the police picked up. The collection, City Manager Dan Wagner reported, was valued at approximately $5,000. The bargain purchase had been "hot," Wagner explained, and police recovered it from the unsuspecting Balogh for return to the owner.

City Attorney Jerry Bunker told the council that it could not legally reimburse the stamp shop owner for the cost of a purchase of property that didn't belong to the seller.

Doubling of Army Seen in Britain

LONDON (UPI)—Queen Elizabeth II announced today in an ages-old ceremony government defense plans that could double the size of the British army to protect her realm in today's threatening times.

In her annual speech opening a new session of Parliament, the smiling queen said in a speech written by Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's government that several army manpower measures were planned.

About 50,000 national servicemen and 140,000 reservists could be affected. The present size of the British army is about 165,000 officers and men, War Office spokesmen said.

The queen, standing in ermine and crown jewel splendor, said the government planned to extend the two-year active duty of some army national servicemen (draft-ees) by six months.

Some reserve troops also will be subject to a recall to active duty.

There was no indication as yet exactly how many men the government plans to add to the army. Macmillan's Conservative party and the opposition Labor party recently voiced concern about the British Army of the Rhine in tense West Germany being undermanned.

Sources said British defense officials pledged an army buildup to Deputy U.S. Secretary of Defense Roswell Gilpatric when he visited London last week.

The British buildup appeared similar to the U.S. increase in army manpower recently.

The queen coupled the news of a defense buildup with pledges to continue and increase Britain's partnership with the United States and other Western Allies in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

She also said her nation would seek East-West settlement "which will preserve the security and freedom of the people of West Berlin."

Deal Offered to Christopher by Demos---Report

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The San Francisco Chronicle said today that highly-placed Democratic leaders had offered Republican Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco a top government job to stay out of California's 1962 campaign.

Christopher, a strong supporter of GOP gubernatorial candidate Richard M. Nixon, is a potential candidate for lieutenant governor. He said he would announce his decision by the end of the year.

Chronicle political editor Earl C. Behrens attributed to informed sources in Washington a report that Democrats had raised the possibility to Christopher of appointing him ambassador to his native Greece.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Labor Department reported Monday that the average hourly wage scale of union building trades workers increased to $3.53 during July, August and September.

San Francisco Seeks Arsonist

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A citywide manhunt was underway today for a suspected arsonist seen dancing away from the scene of one of eight hotel fires which broke out in rapid succession.

The blazes, all started within a six-hour period Monday night, climaxed a wild two days of multiple alarm fires throughout the city.

The first fire was reported at the Stewart Hotel at the height of the evening traffic rush hour. A bed, drapes and rug were burned in an unoccupied room.

Three minutes later, a fire spread 20 feet along the hallway on the 13th floor of the Fielding Hotel after flames leaped from a nearby linen closet.

Hotel employees said they had seen a shabbily-dressed young man loitering in the building during the past few days.

Less than 10 minutes later at the St. Francis Hotel, a curtain was discovered burning between the third and fourth floors. A tenant at the hotel reported seeing a tall youth with a pimple-scared face "dancing" away from the St. Francis, "giggling to himself and laughing."

Within a half hour, employees at the Clift Hotel found a blazing wastepaper basket in an unoccupied room and managed to extinguish the flames before serious damage could be done.

Just 20 minutes later, firemen rushed to the Bellevue Hotel where a linen closet had burst into flame.

At about the same time the outside awning at the nearby Hotel Marlow caught fire and was quickly doused with water.

An hour passed before the next fire was discovered. The night manager of the Sir Francis Drake Hotel found slit pillows and scattered feathers afire on the 18th and 20th floors in the stairwells. He used extinguishers to put out the blazes.

The last hotel fire was reported at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel at around 11 p.m. Firemen quickly controlled the one-alarm blaze.

Meanwhile, a three-alarm fire broke out in a small apartment building.

Earlier in the day, there were two major fires elsewhere in the city.

The outbreak began Sunday, when a general-alarm fire in the Potrero District caused $500,000 in damages as gusty winds whipped the blaze along a block-long area. It was the first time since 1949 that all the auxiliary firemen in the city were called out. A warehouse and two homes were destroyed, but nobody was seriously injured.

UAW Makes Concessions To Chrysler

DETROIT (UPI)—The United Auto Workers Union today hoped a new economic offer it made to Chrysler Corp., reported to contain some major concessions, would lead to a complete new contract agreement for the firm's 60,000 workers by tonight.

It was believed the concessions could cost workers five cents an hour over three years.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther, who made the offer Monday night, said it took into account Chrysler's $20-million loss this year and should provide the groundwork for a new three-year contract.

Chrysler Vice President John D. Leary asked to study it during the night and Reuther said "we'll know by this morning if we can pull it all together."

Reuther said the offer covered pensions, wages, unemployment benefits and insurance plans. The proposal, he said, is based on the "economics" of Chrysler and "provides the basis for an overall settlement."

The union wants to reach an agreement by 8 p.m. today when the UAW executive board is scheduled to meet. Otherwise, Reuther said the board would give Chrysler 48-hour contract termination notice—meaning a possible strike on Thursday.

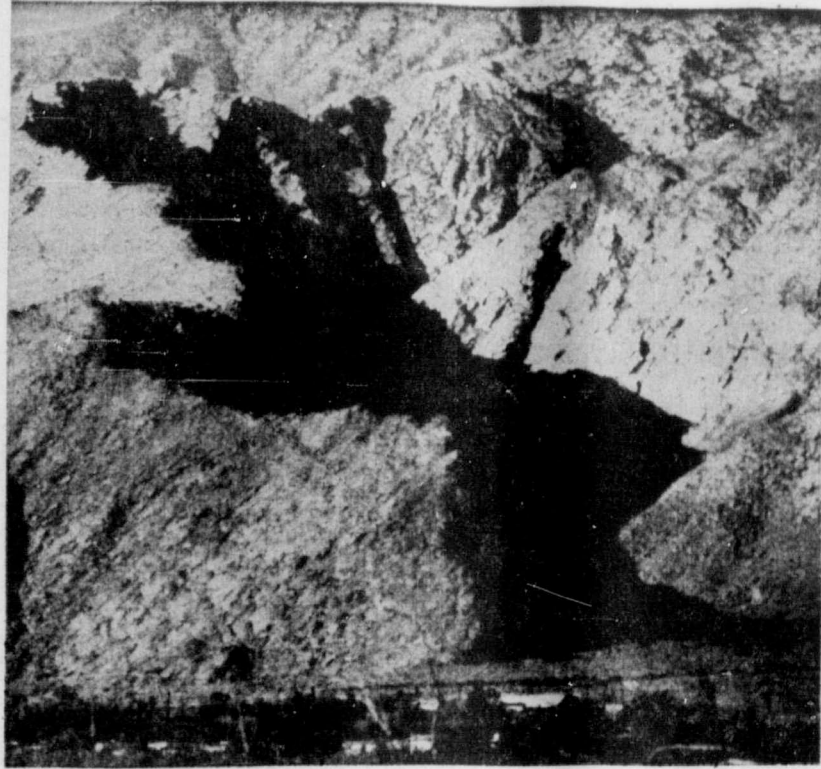

PTA Only Objection To Kids' Collections

The board of the Parent-Teacher Association of Cielo Vista school emphasized today that "we are not objecting to UNICEF as a whole, but to the method in which it is obtaining funds through our children in our entire school district."

In a statement released by Mrs. George Milkie, president of the group, the PTA board stated that "we encourage and urge children and parents who wish to donate to UNICEF to bring along their contributions from home to our Halloween party."

The statement reiterated a Friday statement that the board had cooperated in UNICEF projects, and emphasized that the National Congress of Parents and Teachers had rejected endorsement of the proposed Halloween door-to-door solicitation.

Ike Returns To Old Role As Campaigner

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — Former President Eisenhower slipped easily into his old campaigner's role Monday night and urged Americans to support President Kennedy's foreign policy.

He also defended the sale of airplanes to Communist Yugoslavia, urged Republicans to "free Texas from one-party rule," and criticized Kennedy for a "lack of fiscal integrity" and "wasteful spending" at home.

Eisenhower was reluctant to comment on foreign policy, but said he saw nothing to indicate any appeasement toward Russia.

"From what I have heard and read, there is a firm intention (by Kennedy) against any appeasement," he said.

Eisenhower spent two days in San Antonio campaigning for Goode, 38, an attorney seeking the congressional seat vacated by U.S. Rep. Paul Kilday when he accepted an appointment to the Court of Military Appeals.

Goode opposes state Sen. Henry Gonzales who commented that Eisenhower coming to San Antonio was like "sending a howitzer after a flea."

Eisenhower climaxed his pitch for Goode speaking at the Alamo, cradle of Texas independence. The rally was attended by an estimated 9,000 persons.

The special election is scheduled Saturday. Gonzales has the support of high ranking Democratic party officials, including Kennedy, and it was reported Vice President Lyndon Johnson will make a personal appeal in San Antonio Thursday on Gonzales' behalf.

Recommends Drug Patents Banning

By HALE MONTGOMERY
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—An economist recommended to a Senate subcommittee today that patents for drugs be abolished.

Dr. Colston E. Warne, Amherst College (Mass.) economics professor, said no manufacturer should be given "monopolistic control" through patents over drugs which might be vital to the health of millions of persons.

"In the kind of life we live today," Warne said, "a drug can be as important as air and water. A drug is not a gadget."

Drug Hearings Resume

The statement came in testimony prepared for the opening of another three days of hearings by the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee on a proposed drug control bill.

The legislation is sponsored by subcommittee Chairman Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., who has charged that ethical drug prices are "generally unreasonable and excessive."

Warne also is president of Consumers Union, of Mount Vernon, N.Y., a non-profit group which tests consumer products and issues the monthly magazine consumer reports with a 950,000 circulation.

Warne said manufacturers of prescription drugs had abused the patent system by "juggling the names in the molecular chemical composition," while "charging exorbitant prices" for supposedly "new" drugs.

Asks Patent Abolishment

He said the patent provisions of the Kefauver bill did not go far enough. The bill calls for exclusive rights to patents on drugs to be reduced from the present 17 to three years. It also would require a patent holder to license any other manufacturer for the remaining 14 years in return for 8 per cent royalty.

Warne termed these features "an unsatisfactory halfway house . . ."

He recommended that the bill be altered "so as to eliminate completely patent protection in the field of drugs."

DIKE BESIDE HIGHWAY

Sand Blast Project Bid Goes to Yeager

THOUSAND PALMS — The latest attempt to prevent sand blasting of cars as they traverse the highway northwest of here in high winds will be constructed by E.

L. Yeager of Riverside, C. V. Kane, district engineer of the California Division of Highways, has announced.

Yeager's bid of $50,608.58 was low for construction of an experimental sand dike to curtail blowing sand on U.S. Highway 60-70-99 about two miles northwest of here.

A bid of $31,094.73 by Lowe and Watson of San Bernardino was second while $33,333.00 by Wes J. Foster and Wes J. Foster, Inc. of Fullerton was third. A total of thirteen bids were received.

The dike will be about 15 feet higher than the adjacent highway and will be constructed 50 feet north of the paved shoulder and extend for approximately one-half mile in the area where sand damage to vehicles during windstorms has been the greatest. The dike and the area southerly to the paved shoulder will be treated with liquid asphalt.

The test installation will give engineers an opportunity to observe the effectiveness of a dike in protecting vehicles against damage from windblown sand, Kane said.

New York Times Comes to Coast

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Times will print a Western edition in Los Angeles beginning in late 1962.

Orvil E. Dryfoos, publisher of the Times said Monday the Western edition will be printed simultaneously with the paper's New York edition.

Dryfoos said the West Coast edition "will make the New York Times news report promptly and widely available to readers in the Western states." He said that Andrew Fisher, assistant general manager of the Times, will be in charge of the edition.

The Western edition will be a six-day morning paper, with no Sunday edition, Dryfoos said.

Ship Jumpers in Blythe Grabbed After Escape

BLYTHE (UPI)— Two alien Greek seamen who jumped ship in New York were to be taken to the U.S. Immigration Office in Yuma today for questioning.

Christopher Alexapoulos, 26, and Michael Kartalidis, 23, broke away from immigration authorities Monday after being stopped for routine questioning at a traffic check point and were later recaptured.

Sheriff's deputies took the pair to the Riverside County substation after stopping them and finding they had no passports and spoke no English.

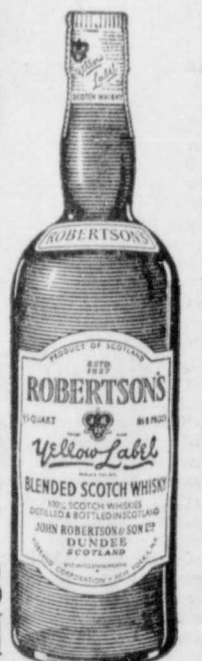

They escaped from the substation and were taken back into custody after a wild chase in which Alexapoulos swam the rushing waters of the Colorado River with a handcuff still on one wrist and Kartalidis hid on a roof of a nearby home.

- ⊙ If it's beauty that beckons, then take a long, loving look. The Monterey is sheer elegance in steel, a timeless sculpture that turns your garage into an art gallery.
- ⊙ If it's advanced engineering that you dot on, peer in and look for yourself: Self-adjusting brakes, 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes. Dozens of industry-leading innovations like that.
- ⊙ And, when it comes to investment, that's really where the new Monterey has everything going for you. The Mercury Monterey for 1962 is priced just a whit more than ordinary-looking, ordinary-riding, ordinary-featured cars.
- ⊙ This is the year you don't have to compromise between beauty and a bargain, between elegance and economy. This is the year of Mercury Monterey. The one car that's got everything going for you.

ALL DRESSED UP to go to the Ranch Club's big Western Party, Sid Tomack isn't at all sure he's happy about wife Ginger's insistence that the horse go to the party with them. Actually, they compromised and the horse stayed in the stall, while the Tomacks had a wonderful time at the party. (P. S. NewsPhoto)

Singing Star Is Surprise

Once again the totally unexpected turned out to be the usual at one of those fun filled Ranch Club parties. Western singing star Doye O'Dell turned up in the sizeable group of merrymakers who enjoyed the first party of the season, a Western costume gala complete with chuckwagon buffet and red hot old style beans, and was persuaded to join the already impressive group of entertainers who alternated on the microphone during the evening.

Noel Clarke has such a talent for providing just the right entertainment for each special occasion and this party included Tex Kidd, well whose selections and requests ranged from "My Happiness" to a Western version of "Alexander's Ragtime Band," Jeri Sullivan and the Bob Hall trio, who produced the most fascinating dance rhythms as well as Jeri's sensational renditions of such tunes as "After You've Gone," "Sorento" (in Italian) and numerous other favorites all of which left the audience applauding for more.

Many of the guests motored down from Los Angeles for the occasion. Audrey Kearns and Beatrice Chenier spent the weekend at the Ranch Club and also attended the Costello party on Saturday night. Sherm and Jeanne Hull came over from the Racquet Club to join the Lawrence Lees (Larry is president of a hotel chain) and Wally and Gerry Schroeder. Architect Vern Welbourne and his wife were seated at Noel Clarke's table but were on the dance floor most of the evening, and the Robert Fellows of Beverly Hills were also in his party.

Bob and Dee Cobb came down from the city as did Don McKamey, Bud Hurlbut, George Gaines and Gene Collins. Sid and Ginger Tomack hosted Joe and Grace Rauche and Dr. Carl and Edie Wall. Ginny Simms arrived with charming Marialia Placido of Rome (Ginny is leaving soon to visit Marialia for a few weeks in Italy). Dale and Loren Rowley, the Stanley Landons, David Webbers, and Iris Woolridge were among the local club members who cavorted about amidst the gingham and music. The Charles Edisons drove from Redlands for the event as did San Diego attorney Bob O'Connor and his wife. The Roger Fergusons and Dr. C. M. Baxters opened their Ranch Club Estates homes for the party.

Always a very social event in its own right, Thunderbird Country Club's formal opening, picked up added glamor by the two major cocktail parties, which preceded it.

Jock Williamson welcomed his guests with that suave smile for which he is noted, and looked as handsome as in his movie days as he handed each feminine guest a fragrant gardenia and each gentleman a dark red carnation for the lapel of his dinner jacket. This is typical of Jock, who once decorated a Christmas tree with gardenias for a holiday party.

The Walter Braunschweigers were there (she ensconced on a divan favoring her foot, as she had broken a metatarsal bone, stepping down off a stool after too long a session with paint brush and palette). With them was Walter's son W. James Braunschweiger Jr. and his wife, who were down from Los Angeles for the weekend.

They were hosting a table at Thunderbird's opening, with the George Scotts and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilcox of New York, and the Jake Fishers of San Francisco as their guests.

Of all the bridal showers that are being given for Carol Malouf, Helen's which is scheduled for tomorrow, is the most unique. She's invited all her artist friends and each is to bring a painting for the bride-to-be.

Millie and James Braden, stopped by Jock's and were going on to the Eldorado opening before going to Thunderbird. Millie is just back from Illinois and says the autumn leaves are gorgeous right now. They expect to occupy their Thunderbird home (the former Bing Crosby house) most of the winter.

Jere and Doyle Cotton were there, and the Mel Eatons, Edith and Dick Edwards, Blanche and Joe Hale, the Ken Kirks, Walter Sibberts, Mrs. Stephen Royce, the Eric Staintons, Maggie and Co Thornton, Topsy and Harold Cooper, the Earl Callans, Virginia and Willard Parker and dozens more, all enjoying those hot cheese tidbits, the cocktails, the conversation and that amusing arrangement of tiny sheeted ghosts on a gallows tree that was a conversation piece in the patio.

Hurried on over to Tonopah Road where the lights were blazing at Louise Nicoletti's home, where she and BJ San Chez were hosting well over 100 friends, and where we saw many of the same people who had been at Jock's party, where the Delgados were passing delicious Mexican tidbits.

Someone kept introducing me to Spud Melin, who is trying to forget that he invented the hula hoop, and only wants to talk about limbo, which is his newest.

Vicki and Billy Malouf were there, the Ken Kirks, the Sterling Pailings, and friends all over the place.

Dr. and Mrs. Mace Gazda, who were out from Chicago for the weekend, joined us for dinner at Thunderbird, and there we found more friends, dining and dancing to Joe Moshay's music. Wendell and Peggy Hunt were down for the first time this fall and others included the Ralph Singers, the Ralph Kisers with the Claude Harmons, the George Irvins (she was entertaining next day at a tea shower for Carol Malouf) the Russell Garners, Lou Manseaus, S. P. Manasses, Ginny and Victor Hugo-Vidal, the Gordon Prentices with their son and daughter-in-law the Gordon Prentices Jr. The Earl Hendersons, Kae Gannon, Florence and Harold Murphy and Ed Robbin, without Bertha who was in the hospital for a check-up. And, there were more, many, many more, as Thunderbird swung into another gay season.

The weekend visit of Congressman Roman C. Pucinski occasioned a couple of Tennis Club parties, both hosted by Mrs. Harry Chaddick, whose husband is in Chicago on business.

An entertaining conversationalist, the congressman was out here on the coast to attend the Fair Employment Practices hearings in Los Angeles and managed to get down to Palm Springs long enough to fall in love with the place.

He heartily endorses the thinking that "the second half of the 20th century belongs to the west," and pointed out that flying out here by jet he lost less than 40 minutes. He left Chicago at 1:20 and was in Los Angeles at 2 p.m. Of course, it took him longer than that to get out to Palm Springs from Los Angeles, and it was a wonderful opportunity to make the point that there is a crying need for commuter jet service directly from Chicago to Palm Springs.

Entranced by the beauty of the Tennis Club, the handsome young lawmaker and ex-newspaper man, who represents Illinois' 11th District, kept exclaiming "Where else can you find a dance floor embedded in rocks?" and declaring that Tony Rose's music was the smoothest yet, and the eye of beef was perfect.

It sounded like he might be back at an early date for a longer stay with his friends, the Chaddicks.

Others in the Sunday night dinner party were Cyrilla Holland, widow of Judge Eugene Holland of Chicago, who is wintering at the Club; Dr. and Mrs. Z. C. Koenig, who are new residents at Silver Spur Ranch; Bud and Vie Graves and Hortense Stone, who was leaving the next day for Chicago, but plans to return in February.

As an ex-newspaper man the Congressman is instrumental in helping form the new 3 1/2 Club in Washington, so-named because it's for ex-newsmen, half way between the Fourth Estate and the Third Estate. It's interesting to learn that there are 35 potential members in the House and Senate, including President Kennedy, himself.

Pull on the plug — not the electric cord — when you disconnect lamps and appliances. Pulling the cord loosens the copper wires inside. They are likely to break.

B'nai Brith Women to Greet Their New Members

"Happy To Greet You" will be the theme of the B'nai Brith Women's "every member bring a new member" drive, to be held at a noon luncheon on Nov. 2, in the Holiday Inn.

Mrs. David Logan, president, will introduce guest speaker, Mrs. Leo Antokal president of the greater Los Angeles B'nai Brith Council and executive board member of District Four. Mrs. Antokal's topic will be "For a Better Tomorrow — Join B'nai Brith Today."

A style show, directed by Nellie Eder and Roy Meltzer, will be presented by Nellie's Feminine Fashions in conjunction with Palm Springs Furs, Helen Fenton's Original Children's Wear, Ila Mae's Beauty Salon and Ted Land's Shoes.

Mrs. Herman Wittenberg will commentate during the showing of evening and casual wear.

Program chairman, Mrs. Harold Sterling, who is an accomplished pianist, will provide background music throughout the afternoon.

Arrangements for the luncheon were made by Mrs. Julius Sherman, membership chairman.

Participating committee will be: Mmes. Morris Altman, Jack Auerback, Charles Farrar, Morris Frankel, David Gilner, David Hamburg, Rose Levinson, Ben Litoff, Maury Pavny and Harry Stone.

Coeds can make their foot lockers do double duty as attractive window seats by covering them with tailored slip covers and topping them with thick foam rubber cushions covered in the same fabric.

Costello Party Is Fun

By HILDY CRAWFORD

A twister of a desert sand storm in the afternoon, scared away many of the guests who usually attend the gala Western Party which Dr. and Mrs. John Costello host each fall at their ranch home on Clancy Lane, but by night time the air was clear and cold enough to make western outfits comfortable.

Aside from the fact that the dance band forgot to show up, everything went off pretty much as usual, with friends greeting friends and everyone enjoying the Costello hospitality.

There were two bars set up, and the two stuffed figures in the buggy, that have masqued all the Costello parties over the years, were there to keep an eye on things. There was the usual buffet that features thin-sliced beef and platters of ham, and a bean bowl that was emptied several times, and the big bowls of vari-colored, many-flavored crackerjack.

An unexpected surprise was finding Anita Belding in the western-clad crowd, and she was being greeted with warm embraces. Anita, who is now rated Honolulu's Number 1 hostess, came to Palm Springs around 1940 and for four years was active in social circles here. During the war, she did much entertaining for the doctors and staff at Torney General Hospital (you know it as El Mirador now). She and her husband were the developers of Desert Palms Estates and there is a street named after her, Belding Drive.

After all these years, she has decided to become a career woman and is working for a Honolulu Travel Agency. She stopped off here on her way to New York and was visiting with Helen Lloyd in her Rancho Mirage home. Escorting her to the party was Col. Emanuel Haig, who owns that castle on Sunset Blvd. in Los Angeles, and was out to spend the weekend at his Desert Hot Springs home.

Saw Elvira and Don Bleitz for the first time this season, and Peg and Norm Waters, just out from Chicago, The Johnny Dawsons, George Berkeys, Mace Gazdas, Jim Hammonds, Kae Gannon (she wearing a gay Palm Springs hat with her western clothes), Hank Gogerty, Mary Branch, Helen and Jack Kenaston, the Harold Murphys, Kay and Howard Morris, Margaret and S. P. Manasse, the Ed Robbins, Geoffrey Kings, Sterling Pailings, Joe Hales, Lee Berings, Walter Sibberts and their houseguests the Charles Lees of San Marino, Earl Hendersons, Jack Fugitt, Lou Manseaus, Blake and Ray Corliss, George Shaw, Audrey Kearns, Milly Kenaston, Doyle Cottons, Ginny and Victor Hugo-Vidal, Glenn Austins, Pat Raymonds, George Hearsts, Russ Garners, Mrs. Noble Banks, and twice that many more.

Welcomed as the newly-elected executive vice president of the Society was Miss Katherine Finch, under whose direction will be the hostess committee of volunteers at the new headquarters.

Taking the place of the traditional Founder's Day picnic in November, will be an Open House when Pioneer families will greet the new members of the Society. All residents of Palm Springs are urged to support the work of the Society through $5 memberships. Border Coverage At Berlin Easy

By CAY BROCKDORFF
BERLIN (UPI) — Any American correspondent can cover the "cold war" conflict on Berlin's Friedrichstrasse from both sides of the front without too much trouble.

An American cruises around West Berlin to determine whether and where the U.S., British and French garrisons have brought up troops and armored units up to the border.

Then he drives through the Friedrichstrasse crossing point, which is the focus of tension, and drives around East Berlin looking for East German soldiers, Russian tanks and other military movements.

Police on both sides of the Iron Curtain try to pump him about the operation on the other side.

Communist customs officials often try to conduct political arguments with American reporters.

Both coming and going, a reporter's car is searched by East German customs officials. The reporter is forbidden to take out of East Berlin any object worth more than 30 marks (that is either $5 or $15 depending whether the West German or East German rate of exchange is used.)

West Berlin customs officials do not make life difficult for reporters. They actually do not care who brings what into and out of West Berlin. They know most of the reporters when they see them and they offer most of them a smile and a handshake, as do the American military police.

East German reporters come down to the border, but they are not permitted to cross into the Western sector. All they can do is watch their American counterparts with envy.

Health Fakers Extracting Billion Dollars

NEW YORK (UPI) — Health fakers are extracting more than a billion dollars a year from persons who want quick, secret or guaranteed cures for assorted ailments, according to Medicine at Work, publication of the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association.

The publication said about 25 million gullible Americans are making medical quacks as rich as gambling czars, vice kings and narcotics bosses.

Medicine at Work said its estimates are based on reports from the Post Office Department, other federal agencies, state license examiners, national health organizations, Better Business Bureaus and independent investigators.

The publication said one of the most fertile fields for quackery is arthritis, which yields an estimated $250 million yearly from nearly half the nation's 12 million arthritics. Cancer "cures" produce around $50 million; illegal abortions between $150 million and $300 million; food fads, $300 million; psychosurgery $50 million and "cures" for baldness, impotency and flat-chestedness more than $100 million.

Dr. Austin Smith, president of PMA, said:

"The quasi-medical underworld grosses each year from its victims a sum equal to half the annual sales of ethical drugs by legitimate companies."

Medicine at Work said that so long as people who desire health "are not satisfied quickly or easily through legitimate channels, the pseudologist will emerge, ready to exploit them."

Telegraphers Dispute with S.P. Settled

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Southern Pacific Railroad Co. and the Order of Railroad Telegraphers have settled a lengthy dispute which had threatened to erupt into a seven-state strike.

Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg and Chairman Francis A. O'Neill Jr. of the National Mediation Board announced that the parties had signed an agreement covering all issues in the dispute which has been in negotiations for three and one-half years.

The Department of Labor said settlement terms were very technical and complicated and would be made public later.

President George Leighty of the Telegraphers Union said the settlement "gives employees an exceptionally fine job stabilization settlement of difficult issues involved loss of telegraphers jobs as a result of automation."

Goldberg and O'Neill congratulated the parties on "a landmark settlement of difficult issues involving technological changes with due recognition of the interests of operating efficiency and employee job stability."

The union originally planned to go on strike Oct. 19, but was balked by a Federal Court order. The union had threatened to walk out Monday if agreement was not reached.

The strike would have affected SP operations in California, Oregon, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Utah and Texas.

Bing Crosby's Wife Bears Him a Son

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Bing Crosby's wife, actress Kathy Grant, gave birth to their third child, a son Sunday night. Mother and child were reported in good condition in Queen of Angels Hospital.

Attendants said the 9-pound, 2½-ounce boy was born at 11:15 p.m., PST. The infant was not named immediately.

58 Palm Springs Girls in Contest For Debs Spots

Fifty-eight of Palm Springs High School's prettiest girls turned out for the annual Palm Springs Deb try outs that resulted in selecting the new 1961-62 Debs.

With high hopes, they paraded in bathing suits and high heels, to the music of Larry Foy at the grand piano, and encouraged by Cliff Brown at the microphone. Scrutinizing the line up of girls in an effort to select the most photogenic, were a group of distinguished judges, who included photographer Bill Anderson; Joan (Mrs. Frank W.) Bering, who has studied art abroad and is a member of the Palm Springs Palette Club; Barbara (Mrs. William) Foster, public relations director of the Harry Conover Agency in Palm Springs; Mitchel Hamblurg, artists' representative (talent agent) with offices in Hollywood, New York, London, Paris and Rome; and Wendy Rue, well-known fashion designer who will shortly open a new ladies' apparel shop in Palm Springs.

A Chamber of Commerce-sponsored project, the Debs are used as cover girls for national magazines, in newspapers all over the United States, as greeters and hostesses for distinguished visitors and in publicizing Palm Springs.

The project, which was started the year Cliff Brown took over the publicity work for the city, seven years ago, has become one of the most important extra-curricular activities for Palm Springs High School girls.

Hildy Crawford, who is honorary advisor for the Debs, each year selects Deb Patronesses, who plan various social events for the girls, highlighted by the Deb Ball during the holiday season. This year's patronesses are Meses. Lester Selig, Joan McManus, Robert Backstrom, Carl Schooss, George Berkey.

Junior and Senior girls from both Palm Springs High School and from Palm Valley School are eligible to compete in the annual tryouts.

Candidate for Governor Resigns Republican Post

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Assemblyman Joseph Shell, a Republican candidate for governor in next year's election, has resigned his post as secretary of the Republican State Central Committee.

Shell said he felt there was a conflict of interest between his campaign and his post as secretary. He will remain on the committee, however.

"By resigning as secretary of the State Central Committee I am satisfied I am following a consistent course in my determination that this primary contest shall be a free one—free of any taint of bossism, deals or any other objectionable feature which would deprive the voters of making their own determination in their own way on the issues," Shell said in a prepared statement.

COLLISION COMING UP. Palm Springs High School back Tom Bradley and Twenty-nine Palms tackle David Harris eye each other with opposing plans in mind. The action took place in Friday's game which the Wildcats won, 19-6, and which was the major topic of discussion last night at the weekly Indian Boosters Club meeting. (Desert Sun Photo)

Palm Springs' Mystery Team

INDIANS COLLAPSE BAFFLES COACHES, FANS, BOOSTERS

"What's wrong with the Indians?"

That seems to be the most important question for Palm Springs High School football fans these days as they contemplate their team's three-game losing streak and seasonal 2-4 won-lost record.

It was the biggest topic of discussion last night at the weekly Indians' Boosters meeting at the Boys' Club and several possible answers were discussed.

"Inexperience?"

"Lack of desire?"

A smattering of Boosters members tossed these possible answers out and they were discussed at length after Coach Dick Bunting gave a run-down on the Twenty-nine Palms loss last Friday and the coming road game with Coachella Valley this Friday.

Some of the club members think the team has often been a victim of poor officiating. One local resident, Ray Lockwood, who is an official of the Inland Association, spoke to the group on some of the finer points of officiating. He called the Inland group one of the finest he's ever seen.

The game didn't look any better in the films last night than it did Friday as far as the Indians were concerned. Bunting complimented the Wildcats as a fine eager team whose 6-5 tie with Coachella, the week before "got their heads up" for the Palm Springs game.

Early Turning Point
Bunting thinks a turning point in the game happened right off the bat when the Wildcats intercepted a Bradley-to-Walton jump pass. Ray Roberts had just kicked for a good gain and the Tribe might have been on its way had not the pass hit Walton's shoulder pads instead of his hands, popped up in the air and came to rest in the waiting hands of a Twenty-nine Palms player.

Golfing

with ALEX MORRISON
Teacher of Champions

Julius Boros improved his putting for a time by standing away from the ball more than usual.

TRUE, in putting it is important to read the green properly and select the right line, but more important is the execution of the putting stroke.

This fact is overlooked by many modern pros and amateurs who make a big ceremony of reading the green. Following this ceremony these players often take an uncomfortable position over the ball, lock their midsections by standing too long with clubhead frozen to the ground or by worrying about the outcome of their efforts.

After missing the putt they invariably take something about the putting surface as causing their failures. Seldom do they give equal attention to their swings such as remaining in the finish position long enough to review what they did about striking the ball.

They should learn that swing faults, not immediately recognized or corrected, automatically increase in number or influence for succeeding performances.

Meet An Indian

BILL BRADLEY, Jr., quarterback, uniform No. 10, has been a star on both offense and defense for Coach Bunting's team this year. A senior, he has been teaming up often in the backfield with his brother, Tom. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley, Sr., of 388 Monterey, Palm Springs.

Walton Leads Tribal Scoring

Gus Walton, Indian end, topped local scorers at the end of two weeks of play in the Desert Valley League. He was 14th in DVL scoring with 19 points, three touchdowns and one point after touchdown. Bill Greening of Banning was high man with 11 TDs and 1 PAT for 67 points.

Tom Bradley, with 13 points, two TDs and a PAT, and Bill Bradley, with 12, two TDs, were the only other Indians in the first 20.

Teams 'Zeroed' In Lanes Leagues

Bob Henwood and Mort Ulman tied for men's series honors in the MouseBurger's League with a 4-2 while Grace Jablow was shooting high women's series of 450. The action took place at PS Lanes. Teams three, four and five won matches over teams one and two and six by 3-1 scores.

In the Late Hodge Dodge, Toys for Boys took three from team 10, Redd! Whip was whipped, 4-0, by team five, Scott's Desert Wear found a 4-0 victim in team seven, Haidet's Hardware was a 3-1 winner over PS Answering Service, and the 600 Coiffeurs moved into the first division after beating team six, 3-1.

Early Hodge Dodge's George Gallarini and Jack Brown managed to roll 139 pins over their average to down a hot-shooting team four, 3-1, and Campbell's Electric spanked the Postmen, 4-0, despite George Meeks' 209 and 502 series. Team two took team four, 4-0.

Nice conversions for the night were Cora Griffin's 6-7-10 split in the Early Hodge Dodge and Jerry Shidler's 6-7-10 in the Late League.

IMPROVEMENT

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Philadelphia Eagles and Green Bay Packers, who played for the National League championship in 1960, were last-place finishers in their respective divisions in 1958.

in their own territory. The score was 6-0 against them in the second quarter and the Wildcats took over and scored four plays later. Bunting took full blame for the action, which had worked several times before during the season.

Looking ahead, the game at Coachella Friday should be a toss-up considering the records. The Arabs record so far this season is 1-3-2 with a lone win, 36-6, over Blythe, losses to Hemet, Banning and Beaumont, and ties with Twenty-nine Palms and Brawley.

Coach Bunting hedges on the outcome. "Coachella will be tough on their home field," he said, "but if we could get the first touchdown, it'll be nice."

"We haven't done that all year," he sighed.

Irish Trainer Tames Balky Champion Horse

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK (UPI) — Horses, as anybody who handles them will tell you, are the craziest people and a case in point today is a strapping bay gelding named Windsor Castle.

"Castle," as he is known in his stable, won the open jumper championship at the National Horse Show last year. Then the powerful, cat-quick hunter began to play the old nicker about going into the ring, sulk and generally raise Cain.

"It was," said one observer, "as if he had started to believe his press clippings."

Hollywood never saw his likes. He would duck his shoulder at a jump and spin his unfortunate rider through the air with all the ease of the man on the flying trapeze. He made the best of riders look as if they'd fall out of a box car with the doors nailed shut.

Then he came into the hands of trainer Dave Kelley.

Gives, Demands Respect
Kelley is a stocky 36-year-old from Connecticut with dark red crinkly hair and a crooked grin which reminds you of a wolf looking into the window of a chicken coop. He is a man who loves horses, gives them respect—and demands it, too.

Ordinarily, a crazy horse remains forevermore as uncooperative as a Russian diplomat. Thoroughbred racing, long having had the most able tub thumpers, has played up the odd-ball characteristics of some of its greatest stakes performers.

There was, of most recent note, a classy colt named Cousin. You didn't have to be a relative to draw his ire. Cousin would kick or bite anybody near him just to keep in practice. But when he got on the race track he really turned on his backward charm. He reared in the gate, nipped other horses, strolled out of the barrier and woe betide the jockey who went to the whip. Cousin just rambled more and more slowly.

Disliked Rain
There was, too, a potentially great colt in Australia which refused to go to the post if a drop of rain was falling. They finally solved this idiosyncrasy by holding an umbrella over his head on the way to the post.

"Pretty silly feeling," commented his trainer, "but once the wire sprang up he forgot the rain in the general excitement."

Getting back to Windsor Castle, there was a general feeling that he was through because of his cussedness. But a New Yorker named Sam Magid took a chance, bought him and turned him over to Kelley.

Kelley tried to be nice, but the gelding sneered at him. Then, rumor goes, Kelley got his Irish up. All hands will deny it to the A.S.P.C.A., but there is a whisper that Kelley walked up to Windsor Castle, stared him in the eye, advised him that "this will hurt you more than it will me, and hauled off and threw a round-house punch which sent "Castle" the length of the stable.

Acts Like Lamb
Modern educators will tell you that you shouldn't spank junior. It will, they say, retard his initiative and give him an inferiority complex.

But since Kelley showed the "Castle" who was boss, the gelding is acting like a lamb, has won two events and looking better than ever is favored to retain his title at the National Horse Show opening in Madison Square Garden Oct. 31 for an eight-day run.

Mother, hand me that switch.

Shotgun Starts Golfing Season At Westward Ho

INDIO — That wasn't a hydrogen bomb explosion that rocked the eastern part of the Coachella Valley Sunday. It was only a shotgun blast signaling the start of a Halloween mixed foursome at the new Westward Ho Golf Club here. An entry of 38 men and women necessitated the "shotgun start."

Mrs. Russ Snow teamed with Gene Elms to win top prize with a net best ball of 34 based on Callaway handicapping. Runner-up honors ended in a tie at 35 between the teams of Mrs. Allan MacAllister and Jack Izu and Andy Sfigi, a substitute for a late withdrawal, and Sam Musashi. Two teams also tied for fourth place with a net of 37. They were Mrs. Reuben Johnson and Allan MacAllister and Mrs. Jim Pippin and Mr. Jim Smalley.

Following the nine hole competition over 50 players and family members enjoyed a potluck supper in the clubhouse prepared by Mrs. Gerry Heimark. She was assisted by Mrs. Ralph Flick, Mrs. Ted Hinderaker, Mrs. Reuben Johnson and Mrs. E. R. Blades.

During prize awarding, Beverly Hanson, professional at Westward Ho, announced that, "thanks to the tremendous reception of this initial event, Westward Ho will schedule many more." She indicated plans are already under way for a similar November afternoon tournament.

COURSE TESTING is a pleasant part of the job of preparing the second annual City Open Golf Championship for these two. Chairman of the event is Dick Rondini, at right, while assisting is Bob Groves. The tourney will be held Nov. 4-5 at the Palm Springs Municipal course. (Desert Sun Photo)

Ferry to Defend City Golf Title Against Record Field

A record field will tee up Saturday in the second annual Palm Springs City Open Golf championship, according to Dick Rondini, tourney chairman.

Over 100 entries will be on hand to try to succeed Dick Ferry, of Upland, as City champion. The ex-Southern California Junior golf champion won last year's inaugural event and will be on hand to defend his title. First flight last year was won by a local golfer, Harold Minasina, who is also back in the competition.

According to Rondini, entries are still being accepted for the event and may be directed to him or to Pro Zell Eaton of the Palm Springs Municipal Golf course where the tournament will be staged.

The 36-hole two-day event is sponsored by the Men's Golf Club and is open to anyone with a recognized handicap from a Southern California golf club. Seventeen prizes will be offered in three flights of play. Entry fee of $15 includes all greens fees.

Jets Beat Majors in Bow at Home

Globetrotters Assist With Crowd Appeal

By United Press International
The Los Angeles Jets of the American Basketball League passed their first test Monday night with flying colors — thanks to an assist from the Harlem Globetrotters.

The Jets are one of the ABL's key franchises, for they and the Chicago Majors are the only teams in direct competition with National Basketball Association squads in the same cities.

The Jets opened their home season Monday night with a 119-116 win over the Majors and a good crowd of 8,384 showed up to see the show.

Rotund Abe Saperstein, imaginative czar of the new loop, has a couple of secret weapons which might help make the new league's Los Angeles and Chicago teams hold their own against their admittedly stronger NBA counterparts.

One is Saperstein's crowd-pleasing Harlem Globetrotters, who always bring the fans out. The Trotters performed as the second half of Monday night's twin bill.

The second innovation is a variety of rule changes, the most striking of which is the three-point shot from 25 feet out or farther.

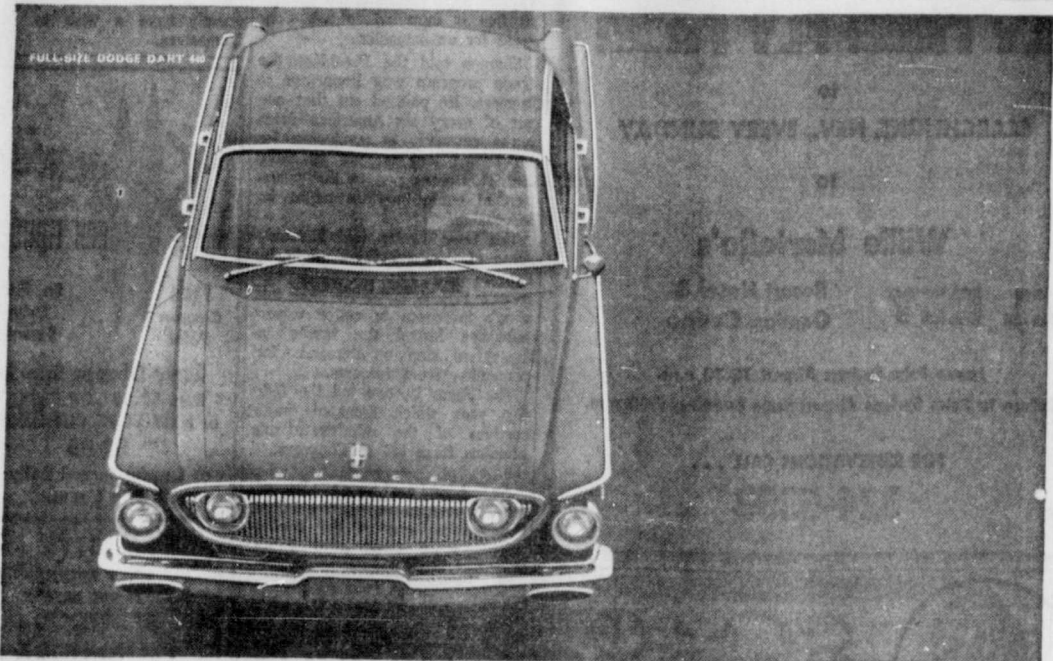

The Majors made four of the home run baskets Monday night and the Jets three, but it was a pretty 40-footer by Jet player-coach Bill Sharman with two seconds to go in the first half that put Los Angeles ahead for the first time, 61-59.

In the end, a great one-man show by Chicago's Kelley Coleman was overcome by the Jets' balance.

Coleman, a driving guard, meshed 35 points, including a pair of 25-foot casts.

But the veteran Jet front line of George Yardley, Dan Swartz and Bill Spivy outscored their Chicago counterparts 66-32 and Los Angeles guard Hal (King) Lear pretty well offset Coleman's efforts with a 29-point spurge.

The win evened the Jets' record at 1-1, while it was the first game for the Majors.

Master Plan on Mental Hygiene

SAN FRANCISCO — Governor Edmund G. Brown has called for a 10-year master plan for mental hygiene and urged citizens groups "in every part of the state to help plan and develop it."

Addressing a meeting of civic organizations, unions, women's clubs, church groups, farm organizations and service clubs at the State Building here, Governor Brown said that "in the last two-year period alone, annual admissions to state hospitals for the mentally ill have jumped from 22,000 to 27,000."

He said the state's four hospitals for the mentally retarded "are operating at capacity and the waiting lists for admission of severe cases have risen steadily to their present 2,000."

In his opening remarks, Governor Brown said that "we need a master plan for mental hygiene just as we need our Master Plan for Higher Education and Long-range water plans."

The meeting of civic groups from all over the State was called by Dr. Daniel Blain, director of the Department of Mental Hygiene, who introduced the Governor.

Blain said that he is in the process of organizing the last of 11 task force committees which will explore every phase of local and state mental health plans and programs.

"This study was authorized by the 1961 legislature," Dr. Blain said. "We will provide the legislature with a statement of basic principles and directions, explicit assumptions, and a rough estimate of future costs."

If the need is indicated, he added, more prolonged study can be initiated to fill in additional details for a 10-year projection. The first report to the legislature is due next January.

WWI Veterans Planning Booth For Jamboree

CATHEDRAL CITY — World War I veterans of Sunshine Barracks No. 207 are making plans to maintain an information booth in the Cactus Jumpers Jamboree and Street Carnival, to be staged Nov. 17-18, and 19, on the main street of Cathedral City.

To make the venture a success the veteran members will need the help of the women relatives of WWI veterans, the announcement said.

Plans are also being made for WWI veterans participation in the parade with units from all over Southern California, including color guards and the Women's Auxiliary Corp.

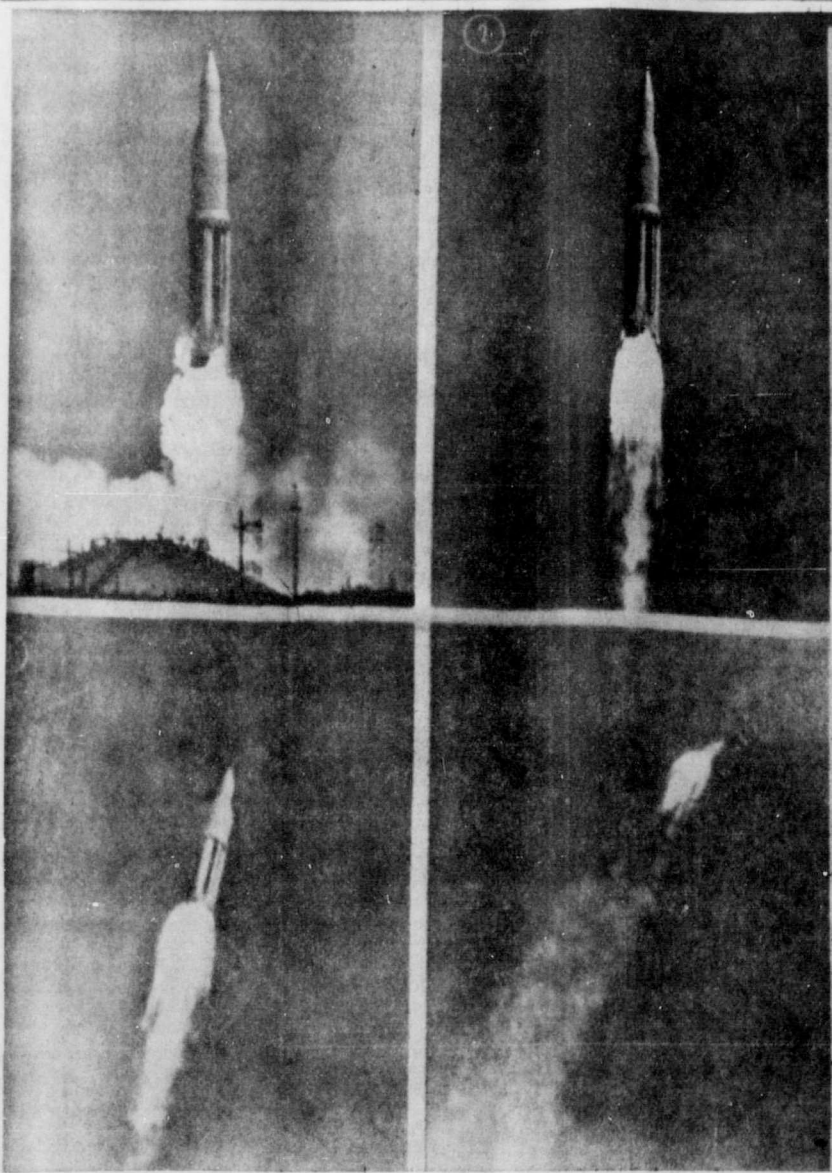

Series on Citizenship

The second in the series, "Two Wednesday Evenings Toward a More Responsible American Citizenship" will take place Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1020 E. Ramon Road.

Two films will be shown, "Dead Men On Furlough," and "The Responsibility Of American Citizenship." The first film is a drama based on a true story taken from the Korean war. Lenin referred to all communists as "dead men on furlough." This film brings out that communism does not respect the individual, only complete dedication, to the party.

The second film discusses American citizenship. Eight great obligations are treated. The films will be followed by a discussion period and refreshments. All are invited to the free program.

The series is sponsored by "The Christian Citizenship Study Group." The Rev. Walter H. Reuning lists the objectives of the group as heightening the appreciation of the American freedoms we possess and guarding against the forces trying to subvert them.

Reds Blast More Than All Others

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Russians now appear to have unleashed more nuclear violence since the dawn of the atomic age than the other three nuclear powers combined.

Before Monday's explosion, an official source estimated the total energy yield of the 1961 Soviet test series at about 60 megatons, the equivalent of 60 million tons of TNT.

Add 50 to that and you get 110 megatons for the 1961 explosions alone. Then add 50 for past Soviet tests and you get a grand total of 160 megatons.

The United States, Great Britain, and France, it has been estimated, have tested weapons totaling somewhat less than 130 megatons.

In addition to having been the greatest test series in history, from the standpoint of sheer energy release, the 1961 Soviet tests also are believed to have been the dirtiest in terms of radioactive debris hurled into the atmosphere. Before this year, the Western powers had manufactured about 7,250 pounds of radioactive fission products with their bomb tests, the Soviets 1,278.

Assuming the Russian weapons are half "dirty" fission and half "clean" fusion, and counting in a 50-megaton shot, this year's Soviet tests generated 6,050 pounds of radioactive fallout.

That would bring their all-time total to 7,328 pounds, slightly more than the Western total.

Young Refugee Granted Asylum

SAN PEDRO (UPI) —Immigration officials have granted asylum to a 17-year-old Cuban youth who stowed away on a Liberian freighter to escape Fidel Castro's Cuba.

The officials ruled that Alfredo Clemente Rodon-Aria was a bona fide refugee.

The youth boarded the freighter Zephyros Oct. 12 in Cienfuegos, Cuba, which docked here Saturday night.

The teen-ager told authorities he was discovered two days after the vessel left port. He said he planned to live in Miami, Fla., with friends.

The Pennsylvania Game Commission has raised, leg-banded and released 71,318 ducks in the state since the project was initiated in 1951.

Corbin C. Clark Graduates from Sub Training

GROTON, Conn. (FHTNC) — Graduated from the Enlisted Basic Submarine School at the New London Submarine Base, Groton, Conn., was Corbin C. Clark, electronics technician third class, USN son of Mr. and Mrs. Corbin G. Clark of Rim Road, Palm Springs.

Graduates will report for duty with various submarines operating in the fleet, after which they will have up to nine months in which to qualify for the submariners' silver dolphins. To earn the insignia, they must show they are able to handle any job aboard the sub.

Groundbreaking Wednesday in Cathedral City

A groundbreaking ceremony will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the new Cathedral City Rancho Mobilehome Park.

A luncheon will follow the groundbreaking ceremonies. Officials of the TraileRancho Corp., which has its general offices in San Diego, will be on hand to turn the first shovel full of dirt on the project.

The new park is located at 39-360 Peterson Road, Cathedral City.

Farm Bureau Balks on Reciprocal Trade Bill If Farm Fight Looms

By BERNARD BRENNER

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Farm Bureau has said it could not go all out to back president Kennedy on a reciprocal trade bill next year if it also had to fight against an administration farm bill.

Farm Bureau president Charles B. Shuman gave that message to the President Wednesday during a White House meeting. The same word has been passed to top Agriculture Department officials.

Shuman told a reporter this was not a threat to withhold Farm Bureau support of reciprocal trade if the group did not approve the President's 1962 farm plans. Shuman said the Farm Bureau was very much in favor of the trade program.

Shuman said his message was simply a recognition of the fact that his group could not carry on two full-scale legislative campaigns at once.

The present reciprocal trade act expires next year and the administration is expected to ask Congress for an extension.

Shuman told the President the trade program was important to farmers. He pointed out that one out of every six American farm acres currently is producing for an export market. He indicated fear that opposition to the reduction of trade barriers might be increasing.

The farm leader told Kennedy some of this opposition might be due to the Agriculture Department's 1961 policies. He said this year's increases in cotton export subsidies forced the textile industry to step up demands for protection from imports.

The Farm Bureau led the fight this year which defeated major sections of the administration's omnibus farm bill in Congress.

An Agriculture Department movie on radioactive fallout has become one of the department's most sought-after films this year, especially from the Midwest and Southwest.

The 23-minute movie, produced a year ago, is called "Fallout and Agriculture." It shows how fallout affects crops and livestock. It gives instructions for handling farm commodities and land after fallout.

The movie also is being reshown in a small theater in the Agriculture Department's administration building in Washington. Its first showing was a year ago.

The Agriculture Department predicted today that exports of American apples and pears would rise substantially in the 1961-62 marketing season.

Officials said the increase was likely because European production of these fruits has dropped this season. Domestic supplies of fresh fruits such as apples, pears and supplies of fresh citrus fruits will be above last year's level through the first half of 1962.

Agriculture Department research workers have reported that soybean growers soon might be able to sell their beans direct to feed mills in some cases.

The forecast was based on studies on the use of cooked soybeans in poultry feeds. When soybeans are used this way, the oil in the beans replaces the fat which is ordinarily added to poultry feed. The studies were made at five feed mills in the north-west Arkansas poultry area. Based on costs in the fall of 1960, the researchers reported potential cost savings ranging from $2.76 to $13.62 per ton when cooked soybeans were used.

Medical authorities have found that accident-prone people frequently have a wish to punish themselves.

Doings in Palm Desert

Talk about the relaxed life on the desert! Hal and Ella Lu Kapp drove to Los Angeles to see his alma mater, Vanderbilt, play UCLA. They enjoyed greeting old friends at the Alumni dinner held at the Ambassador, then hurried back to Palm Desert for "Grandpa's Follies" given by the P. D. players. Hal and Ella Lu did the "No Two People" number from the Hans Christian Andersen production, then dashed to the informal opening at the Shadow Mountain Club to repeat the act. Dick Kite joined them and repeated his black-face Mammy number. Ted Smith did his western collection of songs, and Hal's sister, Mary Alton, came from Encino to join in the fun.

The veteran director and actor, Clay Stearns and his Palm Desert players, did "Grandpa's Follies" to an enthusiastic and amused audience, then Clay did his hilarious "Fireman Save My Child" skit. Cliff Henderson mystified the gathering with his magic tricks. Enjoying the performance were the newly-wed Lou Kuehnners. Lou and Jane are busy with the Leisure Loft, now in its fifth year. Open house will be held on Nov. 5.

JAMBOREE QUEEN contestants in Cathedral City are these six girls. From left, standing, are Marcy King, Cheryl Snedeker, June Larrieu; seated, Patti Patane, Claudie Lewis and Sandy Lee. One will be chosen by popular vote to reign during the Cactus Jumpers Jamboree, sponsored by the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce Nov. 16-19. The festival revives a celebration that was traditional in the early days of the community.

Cathedral City Fete Set

CATHEDRAL CITY — Revival of an old-time celebration, the Cactus Jumpers Jamboree, has been announced by the chamber of commerce as a three-day program scheduled Nov. 16-19.

And an advance program already is under way for selection of a queen for the celebration, according to Chamber President Dorothy Sippy.

Contestants already have been selected and next Saturday at 10 a.m. they will be introduced at a booth on the corner of Broadway and Glenn for a popular vote program. The girl of your choice will receive one vote for each dollar purchase from the merchants of the area.

The Queen will wave her royal scepter and set in motion a four-day Carnival of kiddie rides, games, popcorn and cotton candy. The highlight of the Jamboree will be a costume parade Saturday, Nov. 18, at 10 a.m., at which time her majesty will greet her loyal subjects from a festooned float.

The Cactus Jumpers Jamboree

More than 853,087 U.S. passports were issued or renewed in 1960, an increase of 16.5 over 1959. Residents of New York, California, Illinois and New Jersey obtained 439,210 passports, or 51 per cent of the total issued and renewed.

revives a gay festivity held in Cathedral City during its early days. Many of those who planned and enjoyed the original fete will join in the celebration, Mrs. Sippy said.

LIFE SAVING FASHION

NEW YORK (UPI) — A life-size mannequin with a breathing apparatus and fleshlike plastic covering is being used to train students in the technique of mouth-to-mouth artificial respiration, the Public Health Service reports.

Plastic valves prevent the dummy's lungs from inflating unless the head is positioned properly by the student.

Residents Seek Old Gas Lights

GOLETA, Calif. (UPI) — If some homeowners in the El Encanto Heights subdivision of the Goleta Valley have their way the clock will be turned back half-a-century.

The homeowners are busy today seeking additional signatures on a petition to Santa Barbara County supervisors to permit them to install gas lights on their front lawns instead of overhead electric street lights.

So badly do 68 of the homeowners want the Gay 90's fixtures that they'll pay for them themselves, they say. They need signatures of about one-fourth of the property owners in the tract.

SHELTER DEDUCTION

NEW YORK (UPI) — The nation's family doctors recently urged President Kennedy and the Congress to enact legislation that would let homeowners deduct the cost of constructing atomic fallout shelters.

Dr. Floyd C. Bratt, President of the American Academy of General Practice, one of those favoring a tax incentive, said such shelters fall within the scope of scientific preventive medicine.

Medicine Owe Origin to Land Of Pharoahs

By MINAS B. ORLOGIDES
United Press International
CAIRO (UPI) -- Medical science largely owes its origin to ancient Egypt, land of the Pharoahs.

From Egypt came the earliest medical books, the first observations of medical anatomy and the first experiments in surgery and pharmacy.

Many now well known drugs were first used by the Egyptians. They include hartshorn, castoreil, mandragora, cumin and coriander.

Egypt's greatest contributions to medicine, however, were autopsy and dissection. During the Ptolemaic age, physicians and anatomists practiced for the first time the systematic dissection of the human corpse, which until then had been forbidden by religious and popular prejudice.

Information Source
The ruins of tombs and temples have enabled science to reconstruct the civilization of ancient Egypt. The details of the funeral cults have been one of the most fruitful sources of information. The mind doctors inspired their patients psychically and narrated stories, recited prayers and used exorcisms to help their patients regain inner strength and confidence.

Spells also were recited on applying a salve, or loosening a bandage and on drinking a medicine. These were not intended to replace the medical treatment but to supplement it. It was believed that faith in the effect of the remedy greatly contributed to the restoration of health.

Bandages were made of linen and manufactured by the embalming trade for surgical use.

Skilled In Bandaging
Medicaments applied externally almost always were bandaged on. Mummification developed a high skill in bandaging.

Adhesive plaster, made of bands or strips of linen, was applied transversely across large flesh wounds to bring the edges together. Surgical stitching also was used on wounds.

Cauterization was employed in cases of unidentified tumors or ulcers.

For ordinary wounds, a favorable remedy was fresh meat applied to the wound the first day, but not longer, and usually followed by a daily application of lint saturated with an ointment of grease and honey.

Treatment for constipation was milk, sycamore-fruit and honey, boiled, strained and taken for four days.

A remedy for "dejection" was wine, honey and colocynth, strained and taken for one day.

Identical Twins Better Bargain

FT. DIX, N.J. (UPI) — The Army, which likes its ranks uniform, got more than it bargained for in John and Joseph Marcheseault. They're identical twins.

The 23-year-old brothers, exact duplicates to most people other than their family, became even harder to tell apart once they donned the same uniform.

They completed their basic training here recently and were assigned to the post's Classification and Assignment section as personnel specialists.

The double-takes came frequently as persons passed from one office to another only to find the same faces working at different desks.

The brothers are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Marcheseault of Moosup, Conn. They have four brothers and one sister. Before entering the Army, Joseph was assistant manager for an ice cream corporation in Bedford, Mass., and John had a similar job in West Boylston, Mass., some 90 miles away.

Salesmen were stunned when, after leaving one store and traveling to the next, they were met by the "same" man.

The 1959 census shows more than 5,000 integrated schools, public and private, in Portuguese Africa. More than 600,000 pupils are enrolled.

Anderson Working at Give Away of Money

NEW YORK (UPI)—This may surprise some persons, but there is a former Eisenhower cabinet member, and a former secretary of treasury at that, hard at work here trying to encourage people to give away their money in large chunks.

But in a good cause, and not for any political purposes either.

Robert Anderson, 51, who was President Eisenhower's treasury secretary from 1957 on, has been handed the job of chairman of the Corporate Gifts Committee of the $104,365,000 building fund of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York. Fund workers call it the great single community effort in the history of voluntary philanthropy.

Anderson has plenty of things to do with his own interests. Why did he take on another job and the tough one of raising money from corporations?

"Philanthropy," he explained in a brief statement, "is basic to our system of free enterprise. Recent history shows little, if any need for philanthropy under any form of government which centralizes society under a dictatorship.

"Corporate giving," he said, "underlines the fact that it is a continual responsibility of leadership to emphasize that the giving of time and money to a cause of one's choice is the price and heritage of freedom."

There's room for the efforts of a good man in the field of persuading corporations to give their money to philanthropic causes.

A National Bureau of Economic Research survey showed recently that the dollar amount of giving by corporations had gone from $33 to $500 million in the past decade. Yet, corporate giving in the United States has been at only .92 of 1 per cent of income before taxes.

One reason for this reluctance appears to be that corporate executives, men with the power to give away the money, shrink from possible stockholder criticism, even though there may be favorable public reaction to such giving.

Package, Label Bill Is Brewing

United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — A new grocery packaging and labeling bill appeared to be brewing in the Senate Anti-Trust subcommittee.

The subcommittee ended its second round of hearings on misleading practices in this field.

"I think these three days have established that this is a field where practices have developed that are wrong," said Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., who conducted the sessions.

Talking with reporters, Hart noted that most witnesses connected with industry have urged self-regulation rather than more government interference. Others suggested that certain specific requirements might be established by law.

Manufacturers Next
But Hart pointed out that grocery industry is "pretty big" for all segments to agree on such details as size of type on labels.

definitions of a "serving," and the like.

"That would be quite a day, wouldn't it?" he remarked. The subcommittee heard consumer complaints last June, and this week's witnesses were mostly package designers and researchers.

In mid-December the manufacturers whose products have been in the spotlight will have their chance at the witness stand. And later still, appropriate officials of the federal government will be asked for their ideas.

Principal consumer complaints and some of the industry replies: —Net contents are stated in fractions of ounces so that price per ounce is hard to figure, consumer say, and so price comparisons with other products are virtually impossible without a slide rule. The industry answer is that price per ounce is less important to the housewife than quality or the number of servings per package. Few buy on such a "rational" basis.

Packages Not Full

—The package isn't full when opened, consumers say. The industry says this is because some product naturally settle in transit. Some items need "breathing space."

—Manufacturers cut the quantity to disguise a price increase, consumers claim. The industry says this is a legitimate business practice so long as the correct weight is shown. Certain prices, like 29 cents, have special appeal so that it is better to keep the price and cut the contents.

—Too many package sizes face the shopper, labeled "jumbo," "giant," "king-size," etc., the consumers complain. The industry answers that many sizes are necessary to satisfy differing needs.

RADIOACTIVE RAIN

TOKYO (UPI)—More than 10 times the normal amount of radioactivity was measured Saturday and Sunday in rain falling on various parts of Japan, the meteorological agency reported Sunday. The increases were believed caused by Soviet nuclear testing.

HEAVEN, HELL, PURGATORY ISSUES IN CATHOLIC SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Attorney Vincent Hallinan has filed a suit that among other things challenges the Roman Catholic Church to prove the existence of Heaven, Hell and Purgatory.

Hallinan, a former presidential candidate on the Progressive party ticket, has filed the suit in Superior Court to contest the will of the late David F. Supple.

Supple, a San Francisco Grand Jury consultant, left most of his $200,000 estate to various Catholic organizations. Hallinan filed the suit in behalf of his 22-year-old son, Terence, a law student.

Hallinan said that his son, in return for a "valuable consideration," was assigned a quarter interest in the claim of Supple's grand-nephew, John C. Smith, to the estate Smith, who was not mentioned in the will, has filed a separate suit.

Both suits contend that Supple was in fear and of unsound mind when he made the will. Hallinan charges that Supple "was persuaded and induced to so believe the teachings of the church that he entertained a constant and morbid fear that, upon his death, his soul might be consigned to Hell, or that it would not attain Heaven except after a long and painful stay in Purgatory."

His suit asked the court to set aside the will and declare that Supple died intestate. Hallinan, 64, describes himself as a former Catholic who is now "a roaring atheist."
